June 8: Our raffle springs to life with a trip for two for an historic evening at the Met. Celebrate Plácido Domingo's 30th anniversary at the Metropolitan Opera as he sings the role of Samson at the September 28th Gala opening of our 1998-99 Season in Saint-Saëns' Samson et Dalila. With sets by Lion King set designer Richard Hudson, this performance is conducted by James Levine and features the Kirov Opera's Olga Borodina as Domingo's Dalila. Includes airfare, fine dining and luxury accommodations.

June 15:

From Yamaha, the Clavinova, featuring an 88-key AE keyboard in a rosewood grain cabinet, looks as beautiful as it sounds.

June 16 & 17: 20 winners of CDs and videos from the Met's catalogue.

June 18: From Celebrity Cruises, a seven-day Caribbean cruise for two on board the luxury liner The Century.

June 19: A trip for two to the Met's new all-star production of Mozart's Le Nozze di Figaro on October 29th. James Levine conducts Renée Fleming, Cecilia Bartoli, Susanne Mentzer, Dwayne Croft and Bryn Terfel. This package includes airfare, fine dining and luxury accommodations.

June 22:

Dare the season in an original Issey Miyake.

Choose from selected items in either the Women's or Men's Collections. Courtesy of the Issey Miyake Boutique.

June 23: 10 winners of a selection from the Met's collection of Historic Broadcast Recording Series.

June 24: From Roger Gross Ltd. — Operatic Autographs, a signature of the legendary Maria Callas, matted with a framed photograph of Callas singing one of opera's greatest roles, Turandot.

June 25:

From Harry and David, the original one-year Fruit-of-the-Month Club™, the healthy, tasty way to stay in touch with friends and family year round.

June 26: From Judith Leiber, in plenty of time for opening night at the Met, an elegant black pleated satin handbag.

June 29: A second trip for two to the September 28th Opening Night Gala of the Met's 1998-99 Season. See June 8th listing for details.

June 30:

The New Grove Dictionary of Opera, a handsomely-bound 4-volume set, covers all aspects of opera from composers, singers and librettists through theatre architecture, scenic design and the great opera cities of the world.

July 1: From National Car Rental, a week's rental of a full-size sedan, just in time for your Independence Day getaway.
